Hammerton are looking for an enthusiastic lead brewer to get involved in every stage of production. Reporting directly to the Head Brewer, your day to day responsibilities will include:

- Wort Production, fermentation management and cellaring to specification
- Basic Lab Work
- Packaging into bottle/can/cask and keg
- Some warehousing
- Record Keeping
- Ensuring brewhouse maintained and cleaned to highest standard
- Overseeing other brewers on the floor

Our brewery is 15bbl and has received great accolades already and is well represented across London and the UK. We are looking for an enthusiastic brewer, who enjoys solving problems and getting involved in all aspects of the brewhouse.

Requirements:

- 2+ years commercial brewing experience
- General Certificate in Brewing as a minimum
- Well-organized, able to oversee brewery, brewing ingredients etc
- Hands-on, our brewers are expected to be involved in all aspects from loading up the brewery equipment for brewing to cleaning and kegging/casking, canning/bottling etc. Heavy lifting of ingredients will be involved
- Potentially the odd brewery tour
- Self-motivated, organized, and energetic individual with good communication skills.
- Great troubleshooting skills and attention to detail
- Positive, proactive attitude

This is a great opportunity for the right person to be part of an exciting journey with Hammerton Brewery. If you feel you are up to the challenge we would welcome your application. Salary is dependant on experience.

All applications will be dealt with in the strictest confidence.
